

OPERATIONAL EXCELLENCE PROGRAM

THE ARGUS OPERATIONAL EXCELLENCE PROGRAM IS DESIGNED FOR HIGH PERFORMING FLIGHT DEPARTMENTS VENTURING BEYOND IS-BAO STAGE 3

The ARGUS Operational Excellence Program is designed to facilitate the collection and sharing of de-identified information amongst its participants.

This program aims to work with business aviation flight departments that currently meet the following criteria:

- Currently IS-BAO Stage 3 registered
- Expressed interest in further development and enhancement of their management processes, based upon collaboration with industry peers

As an active participant, your Corporate Flight Department will also receive periodic, updated benchmarking reports incorporating the findings from the data collected from new participants.

All information collected is confidential and de-identified.

GAIN VALUABLE INFORMATION FROM TOP-TIER FLIGHT DEPARTMENTS ABOUT IMPROVING BUSINESS OPERATIONS

You will also have the opportunity to meet twice a year during roundtable sessions with all program participants. These meetings are designed for top-tier flight departments to exchange valuable information regarding specific procedures and business practices that have helped improve the safety, quality, and efficiency of their operations.

The Operational Excellence Program is a unique opportunity to improve your organization based on real, fact-based, and actionable information coming from the best flight departments in the industry.

GUIDELINES

The Operational Excellence Program has developed guidelines dealing with the following areas:

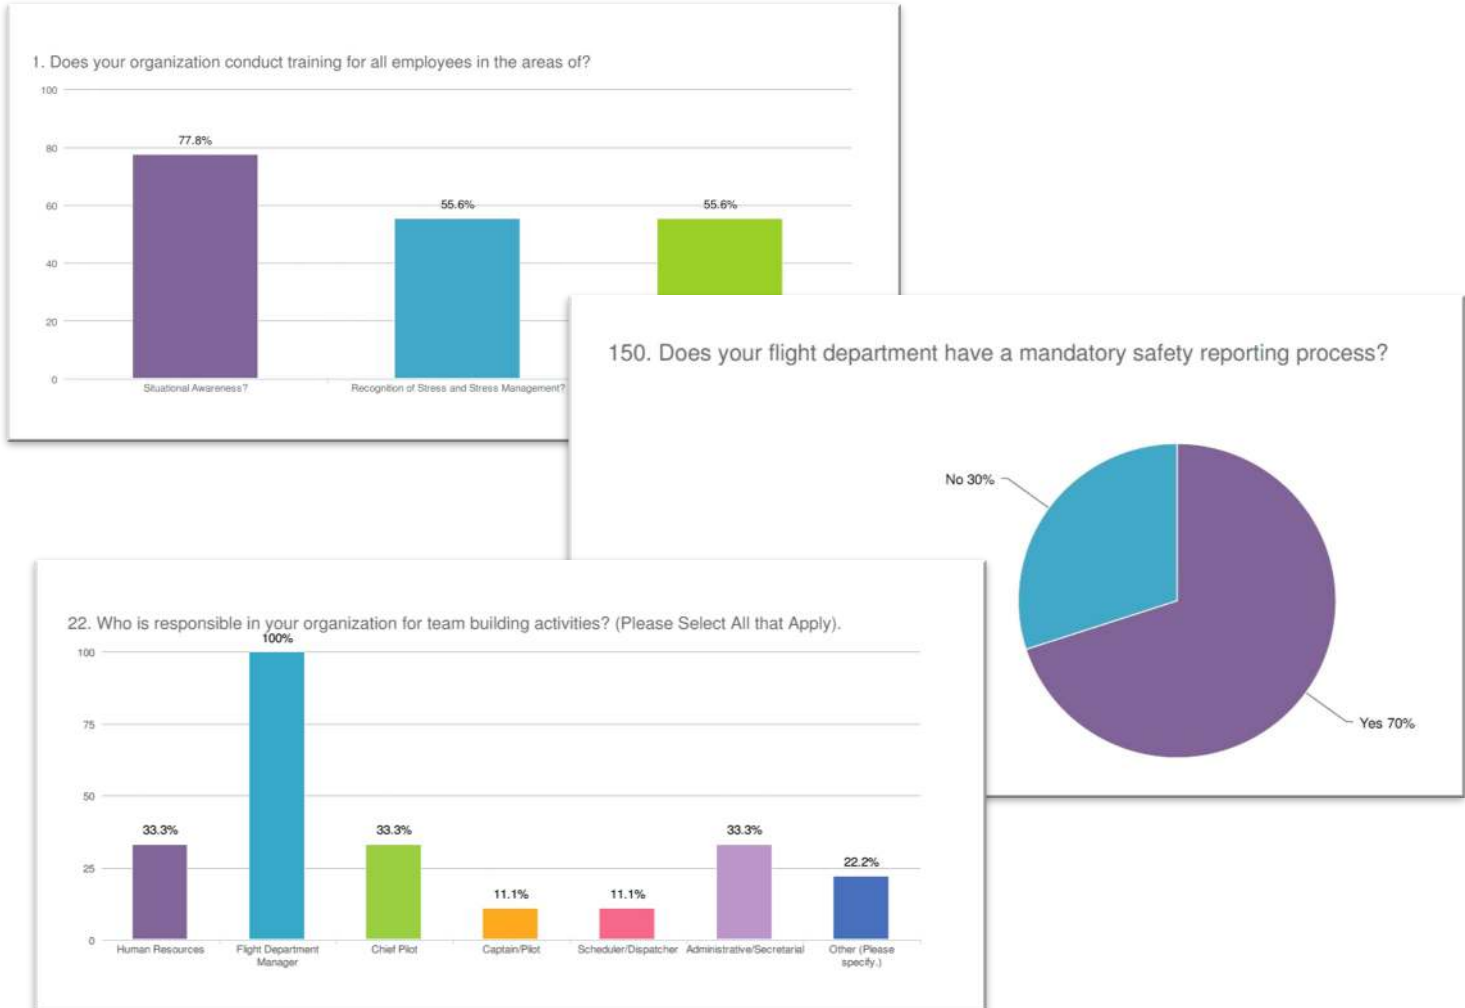

- Human Factors
- Cultural Augmentation
- Organizational Advancement
- Strategic Planning
- Communication
- Financial Metrics
- Technology Advancements
- Advanced SMS Techniques
- Outsourced Services Strategies

ARGUS Operational Excellence Program is for flight departments who want to participate in a more advanced implementation of industry best practices.
